DETAILED ACTION

Status of the claims: Receipt is acknowledged of the preliminary amendment filed 12/29/2005. Accordingly, claims 3, 7, 9, 13, 16, 18-19, and 21 are amended, claims 4-6, 10-12, and 15 are cancelled, and claim 22 is newly added. Claims 1-3, 7-9, 13-14, and 16-22 are presented for examination.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-3 and 16-18, drawn to composition comprising the compound of Formula I and an alpha-1-adrenergic agent and a pharmaceutically acceptable carrier. Please see further specie election requirement outlined below.

Group II, claim(s) 7-9, drawn to a kit comprising the compound of Formula I. Please see further specie election requirement outlined below.

Group III, claim(s) 13-14, drawn to the compound of formula I.

Group IV, claim(s) 19-22, drawn to a method of treating bladder irritative symptoms. Please see further specie election requirement outlined below.

Art Unit: 1614

The inventions listed as Groups I to IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the common technical feature is not a special technical feature a posteriori because the common technical feature is not the Applicants' contribution over the prior art. The common technical feature in Groups I to IV is the compound of formula I having the CAS Registry Number 214764-26-8. However this compound was disclosed in the American Chemical Society's chemical database on November 25, 1998.

Specie election

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

A specific alpha-1-adrenergic compound that is encompassed by the claims.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. In order to be completely responsive to this species election requirement, Applicants must further elect a specific alpha-1-adrenergic compound (e.g., tamsulosin, prazosin, terazosin, etc.). The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 1614

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: 1-3, 7-9, and 16-22.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the common technical feature is not a special technical feature a posteriori because the common technical feature is not the Applicants' contribution over the prior art.

Joint Inventors

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Conclusion

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
